PROSECUTING ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

Certification for Determination of Probable Cause

That Jennifer Southworth 6041 is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and is familiar with the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department 2017-75818. There is probable cause to believe that [REDACTED] committed the crime(s) of:

- Assault In The Third Degree (Nurse, Physician, Health Care Provider), in Seattle

County of King, in the State of Washington.

This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances:

On 3/2/2017 at approximately 1835 hours Officers were dispatched to the Navos Facility, located at 2600 SW Holden St., to investigate an assault. Upon arrival, officers met with [REDACTED] an employee for Navos. [REDACTED] explained that one of their patients, later identified as [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]), had become agitated and refused to take his medication. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] took a fighting stance and threatened to beat up any staff that approached him. Staff members attempted to calm [REDACTED] without success; [REDACTED] only became more agitated. As the staff approached [REDACTED] he began flailing his arms attempting to strike approaching staff members. [REDACTED] then grabbed a Charge Nurse ([REDACTED]) by his left leg and drove him into the floor. [REDACTED] was ultimately taken under control and placed into four-point restraints.

Officers interviewed [REDACTED] as he was being treated by Seattle Fire personnel. [REDACTED] stated that after being tackled by [REDACTED] he was unable to move and he was in extreme pain. [REDACTED] also stated that [REDACTED] threatened him saying he would, "kill you if you come near me, bring it on motherfucker". Seattle Fire personnel determined that [REDACTED]'s hip was either dislocated or broken as a result of [REDACTED]'s attack. [REDACTED] was transported to Swedish Hospital for further treatment.

During the follow-up investigation detectives learned that [REDACTED] had to undergo surgery to repair his broken hip. At the time of the incident and assault [REDACTED] was performing his duties as a Charge Nurse for Navos.

Under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, I certify that the foregoing is true and correct.
